

November 21, 2022

Hirofumi UENO
Chief cashier, Director of Finance Division
National University Corporation, Kumamoto University

Reminder of Overdue Tuition Fees

Students who have not yet paid the tuition fees for the Fall semester of the Academic Year 2022 are required to make immediate payments.

Students who have not yet transferred their tuition fees into the university's account should deposit the required amount into their designated account by the day before December 9th when the withdrawal will be made.

All other students who have not paid their tuition fees are required to make immediate payments directly at the Cashier window.

Cashier window: Cashier's office of Budget Section, Finance Division

(First floor of Administration Office)

Accounting Section of Administrative Office for Life Sciences

(First floor of Basic Research Building)

General Affairs Section for Pharmacy, Administrative Office for Life Sciences

Details and Required Amount of Payment

- Research or Education Section of Faculties and Graduate School ¥ 267,900
- Special Needs Education Advanced Studies Course and School Health Course ¥ 136,950
- Research Student ¥ 29,700 /per month
- Non-degree Student ¥ 14,800 /per credit

Tuition fees paid by students in long-term courses are independently set according to the course period.

Please confirm the amount at the cashier window.

Notes 1) December 12 will be the final date for bank account transfer of tuition fee for the Fall semester.

Notes 2) If the tuition fees are not paid by December 19, please note that “Reminder of Overdue Tuition Fees” will be sent to your guarantor.

Students who are applying for a tuition waiver are allowed to suspend the payment for the tuition fees until the final judgment will be made. When students are “denied” or receive a “half exemption”, the required tuition fees must be paid immediately.

Notes 3) Please request a receipt at the cashier's office of the Budget Section, Finance Division once you have paid the tuition fees.

(Students at Honjo, Kuhonji, and Oe Campuses can request a receipt at the Student Division window in each faculty. The cashier's office of the Budget Section, Finance Division will distribute receipts on the following day)